If, however, the medical examination provided for in Article 6 shows the member of the ECAC contract staff to be suffering from sickness or invalidity, the Director General may decide that expenses arising from such sickness or invalidity are to be excluded from the reimbursement of expenditure provided for in Article 67 of the Conditions of Employment of ECAC officials.

If a member of the ECAC contract staff proves that he cannot obtain cover under any other sickness insurance scheme provided for by law or regulation, he may, on application made at the latest within one month following the expiry of his contract, continue to benefit from the sickness cover provided for in the first paragraph, for a period of not more than six months after the expiry of his contract. The contributions provided for in Article 67(1) of the Conditions of Employment of ECAC officials shall be based on his last basic salary and half thereof shall be charged to him.

The Director General may, after obtaining the advice of the Agency's medical officer, decide that the one-month time-limit within which the application must be made and the six-month limit provided for in the preceding paragraph shall not apply where the person concerned is suffering from a serious or protracted illness contracted during his employment, which he has reported to the Agency before the end of the six-month period provided for in the preceding paragraph, on condition that the person concerned undergoes a medical examination arranged by the Agency.

The allowance may be granted or maintained by the Agency, even where the national obligations referred to under (b) have not been fulfilled, in cases of illness, accident, maternity, invalidity or a situation recognised as being similar or where the national authority, competent to meet those obligations, has given a dispensation.

The Director General shall, after obtaining the opinion of a committee of experts, lay down such provisions as it deems necessary for applying this Article.

3. The unemployment allowance shall be set by reference to the basic salary attained by the former member of the ECAC contract staff at the time of the termination of his service. The allowance shall be set at:

These limits shall be adjusted, in the same way as the salary scales referred to in Article 63 of the Conditions of Employment of ECAC officials, in accordance with Article 62 of the Conditions of Employment of ECAC officials .

4. The period during which the unemployment allowance is payable to a former member of the ECAC contract staff may not be more than 36 months from the date of termination of service and shall in no case exceed the equivalent of one third of the actual length of service completed. However, if, during that period, the former member of the ECAC contract staff ceases to fulfil the conditions laid down in paragraphs 1 and 2, payment of the unemployment allowance shall be suspended. Payment shall be resumed if, before the expiry of that period, the former member of the ECAC contract staff again fulfils the said conditions and is not entitled to national unemployment benefit.

5. A former member of the ECAC contract staff who is eligible for the unemployment allowance shall be entitled to the family allowances provided for in Article 64 of the Conditions of Employment of ECAC officials .
